“Global Fair at INU Connects Students from Around the World”

By Junghyun JOO, International Office

In an effort to foster cross-cultural connections and promote global awareness, INU hosted its annual Global Fair. The event, which took place on Tuesday, October 31 at the new library, witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 60 international students hailing from 14 diverse countries.

The Global Fair served as a platform for international students to actively promote their respective countries, providing valuable insights and cultural experiences to INU students eager to explore the world. This vibrant exchange of knowledge and traditions left an indelible mark on the INU community.

With more than 800 INU students in attendance, the event was a resounding success. The international students' engaging presentations and interactive exhibits showcased their homelands' unique attributes and traditions.

One of the highlights of the day was the opportunity for INU students to savor traditional meals from around the world, skillfully prepared by the international student representatives. The rich and diverse flavors served as a delightful gateway to experiencing the world through taste.

“INU hosts 2nd Japanese Week: A Celebration of Academic Collaboration” by Sol SEO, International Office

INU proudly hosted its 2nd Japanese Week from November 23-25, 2023. The event took place on the picturesque INU campus and welcomed esteemed staff members responsible for inbound and outbound exchange student programs from six distinguished partner universities in Japan.

The guest list featured representatives from Josai International University, Chiba University, Chikushi Jogakuen University, University of Kitakyushu, Fukuoka University, and Hiroshima Shudo University. Their presence added a unique blend of diversity and shared academic vision to the occasion.

INU organized a series of engaging seminars and meetings, providing a platform for fruitful discussions on collaborative opportunities and fostering deeper connections between the participating institutions. The focus of the discussions was to enhance the exchange student programs and create a more enriching academic experience for students from both INU and its esteemed Japanese partners.

The feedback from both the guests and INU students was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing gratitude for the enriching exchange of ideas and the welcoming hospitality of INU.

INU looks forward to building upon the success of Japanese Week, continuing to strengthen ties with its Japanese partners, and providing students with more fruitful opportunities for global learning and collaboration in the future.
